IGNORANCE

Ignorance is all too common in society today.
 Prejudiced hatred is a direct result of ignorance.
 Be it skaters, freestylers, punks, hippies, whatever, people tend to be deathly opposed to things they dont understand. I understand society, but I hate it.
 Am I ignorant? I think not...

CATALOG OF DEATH

Chemical Weapon	Effects
Blood Agents Hydrogen cyanide Cyanogen chloride	When inhaled, they block the blood's oxygen-carrying capacity, causing tearing, choking and sometimes death
Choking Agents Chlorine Phosgene Chloropicrin	These gases, some of which smell like hay, sear the lining of the air passages. When plasma enters the lungs from the bloodstream, victims drown in their own fluids
Blistering Agents Sulfur mustard Nitrogen mustard Lewisite	These can linger for weeks, inducing vomiting and nausea. Eye and skin irritation, temporary blindness and blisters typically result. Respiratory problems can lead to death
Nerve Agents Tabun Sarin Soman VX	Odorless, colorless substances that disrupt the function of the nervous system. The deadliest of the chemical poisons, they are inhaled or absorbed through the skin and can kill within 15 minutes

Killing the killers

1. O.K. who's all in the band?
Rasta Vic- Vocal Utterance
Black-eye-boy Ed- Small strings
Rat boy Stu- Small strings
Babyface Dougout- Big strings
Tofu munchkin man Larry- Bongos

2. How long have you been together?
Larry: Well, the first reach out line ups came and went real fast. Member changes are constant, but the first reach out probably popped up about 8 months ago.

3. Who were your major influences?
Reach out: Influences, huh? well if you really want a list Cro-Mags, Bad Brains, Youth of Today, Verbal Assault, Gori la Biscuits, H9, Black Uhuru, Eric Clapton, Jackson 5 and John Denver.

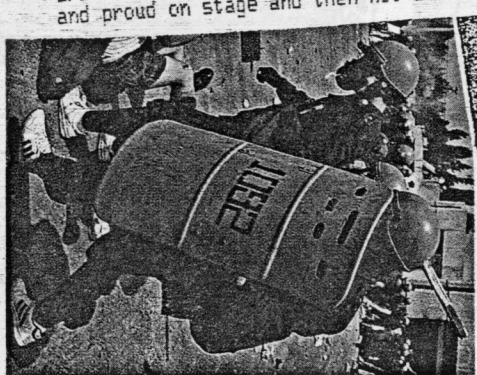

4. Tell everyone who doesn't know you what you think of drugs.
Vic: Many people think its a kind of freedom to take drugs and otherwise intoxicate themselves through alcohol, cigarettes, coffee, tea etc. And when they hear someone bringing up the point that that's not human behavior, it pisses them off or something. After all, no one likes being told what to do, this is a free country right? Why should we restrict ourselves from intoxication? The answer is in the understanding that restriction is not always opposed to freedom. For example, it is logical that by telling you "Don't jump off the roof." I am helping you to truly exercise your freedom. Freedom would certainly come to an abrupt end if you ignored that simple instruction. So, by asking you not to drink poison, is that restricting? Maybe in one sense, but in a far larger sense, it is nothing less than a requirement for freedom.

REACH

6. Do you know a lot of people who have "sold out" on their ideas, beliefs, etc.?

Vic: Well everyone has a different idea of what "selling out" is. A lot of people see change as "selling out." But most of the bands I know in NYHC are true to themselves. But some bands fall into the hole of talking real loud and proud on stage and then not showing much action off stage.

7. What does each of you do besides make music?
 Vic: You know, Reach Out is really active in their spare time... Larry makes Tofu while Eddie helps the boxing glove industry by acting as a punching bag. The rest of the band is not so productive... Stu is usually preoccupied dodging exterminators and rat-traps to do much of anything else. Mike "the Pipe" LaDonte (The new singer, since I went to California) spends life performing strange acts while smiling out the back windows of rent-a-vans. And Doug just sits around digging holes...
 8. How wide-spread is your demo-tape?
 Larry: The demo is basically in NY with a few others scattered around the country. In New York, its sold by Venus records, Bleeker Bobs, and us in front of shows. Or you can get it through Shred, through shred it comes with some cool literature.
 9. Do you have any new music in the works?
 Stu: Eddie is in the New York Vegetarian band, "Discipline." Vic is now in California starting a band which will probably be called "Atonement." Reach Out has plenty of new songs to choose from. Like "Watching With Eyes Closed"
 10. Each of you, last words, closing comments or nonsensical babble?
 Larry: Eat my homestyle tofu, just like grandma used to make.
 Eddie: Let me ask you one question: Mr. Vinci, are you a...
 Mike: Budget rent-a-vans are best!
 Stu: Meat is murder, but thank god they don't have ratburgers.
 Vic: Yes, I'm a-feelin' mighty like me, so why you bringing this babylon down us? Thanks to Satyanaraja Dasa.
 DOUG, "WHAT?"
