NON CONFORMIST

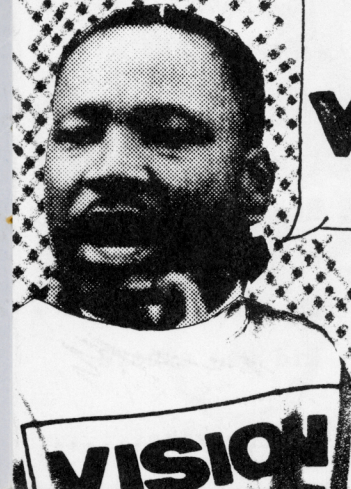

O.K , you might not know what it means, but you might have an idea

When I said, let's call our zine, "THE NONCONFORMIST" zine, my fellow zine makers (cept A.P), said "NONCONFORMIST?" "Whats that?" Even Jeff I E (95 average brain) didn't know what it meant Well, let me think of an example, (I looked at Jeff's shirt), say, you see ten lame people, wearing the same green striped buttoned up nerd shirts with pocket protectors and then, next to them you see a rad freestyler sporting an awesome VISION STREET WEAR shirt on, well, he's a NONCONFORMIST, and the geeks are conformists (Long pause thinking was going on)"Oh, O K Yea, that sounds rad, lets use it!!" !!

WITNESSED

A, GENERAL show, in Liverpool, N.Y, At Lindy's Bike Loft. We got there early, and the locals, were rippin' on bikes and scoots, the hardest trick, I witnessed, was a local pulling a double decade. The GENERAL trailer was there, and on the other end of the pavement, the Lindy's pipe was up. Todd was pulling trix on a skate. He was the only member there at the time. So, we decided to go inside, and check the place out At first, I thought the place was a piece, until, I ventured upstairs, where, there was a mass display of all the latest awesome parts, and rad cycles I filled out about a million entries for an autographed GENERAL jersey Then, we went outside into the blazing 95 degree sun, where we found a cool spot[not cool, as in (not hot)] OINGO BIONGO was on the sound system and, then, the other hip members, I E. EL-CID, PETE KERNEY, and, CEPPIE showed up. CEP was sporting a V.S W shirt, and VISION shorts), my friend had the same the same shirt, on, as CEPPIES shorts. While they were warming up, the mass crowd came in, including THE LINDY'S TRICK TEAM with LINDY's shirts on Plus, I remember this GEEK that stood next to us. That kid was pitiful, he brought along his fat, ugly mom, who was so ugly, I can't describe her. Anyways, his mama bought him a GENERAL shirt, so he can fit in. THAT kid was a digrace to freestyle, he was just in it for the status. He didn't even know who R.L was! Anyways, this kid was a nerd.

WITNESSED, CONTINUED FROM BEFORE

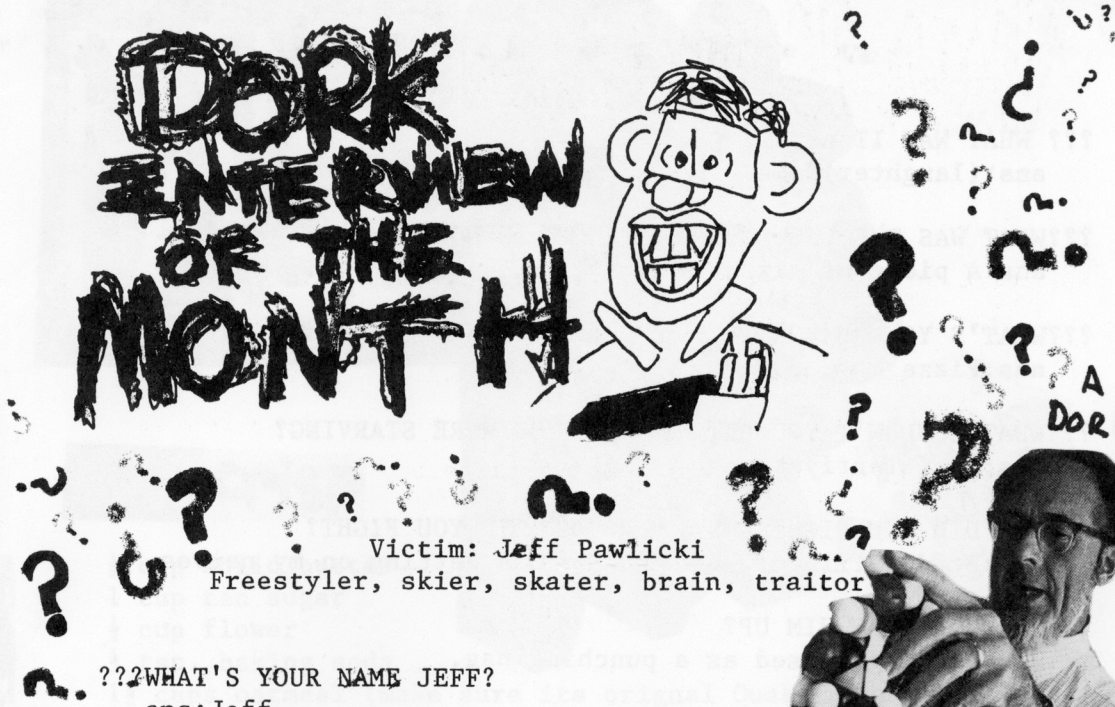

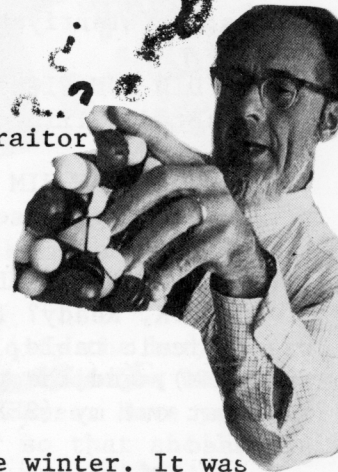

Well, were standing there, waiting for the show to start, and a big package comes for Ceppie, packed full with shirts I said "Yah, free t-shirts!!", later to find out they were all just for Cep Then the show got started, all the GENERAL team, was on top on the trailer, Ceppie called each rider out at a time, all they fed us their trix, Ceppie was getting the crowd going, while they were jamming, Pete had problems with his brakes My friends and I were chanting "R.L, R.L", we were the loudest, doubtless And BELIVE THIS!, Ceppie called us out there, to teach the homeboyz how to yell, my friend grabbed the mic from Ceppie, and started screaming, then we went back, and witnessed R L's massive backwards rubber ride Todd did some killer lookbacks, and got some big air Then Ceppie said, that they were giving out free mushrooms, (of coarse everyone in the house started screaming) R L went around teasing people with the grips and then he came directly to me! RAD! That nerd even tried to take them from R.L. Anyways, I was stoked! The rest of the show was awesome, and we even got the crowd chanting R.L, R.L!, even Ceppie was saying it After the show, mass autograph session, free pictures, and this lame lady, said to her son "These will be worth some money someday" Riding home, I had a massive headache, and my voice was shredded Two weeks later, I got a jersy in the mail Yes! A show to remember GENERAL is awesome A thanx to Lindy's, for the show, Hey, that place is rad, check it out!, Well till the next show LATER!

apple crisp

- ½ cup solid butter
- 1 cup tan sugar
- ½ cup flower
- ½ tsp baking soda
- 1½ cups oatmeal (make sure its original Quaker Oats)
- ½ tsp sodium

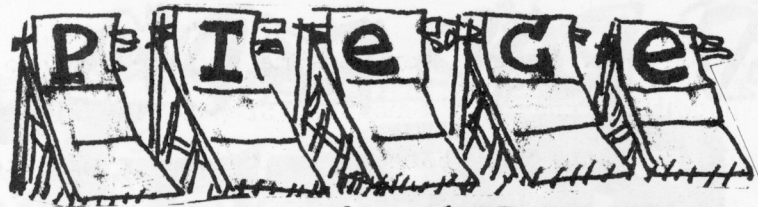

Preheat stove at 350° Grab a pot and liqify the butter Then trow in the other ingredients Mix ~~the ingredients~~ well. If above 10,000 ft in altitude, well who cares. Have your Mom dice the apples Tell her you love her so that she'll do it Get a Visions see through pot or if you are under-privileged a corning ware will do Toss in half of the mix into the corning ware pot. Flatten well Dunk shot the apples in the middle Throw the rest of the mix on the apples. Slam that baby in the oven. Good things cook slow Half an hour will do Pull that beast out and don't burn yourself. If you can't resist the temptation let it sit for half an hour. Then purge that baby. If your smart you'll eat the whole thing yourself Respect your table manners, don't eat with your fingers

THIS STUFF WILL KILL YA!

RAMP PLANS

So ya wanna build a cheap quarter pipe in a day, do ya? Well, you came to the right place. All you have ta do is follow these 10 (not so easy) steps, and you'll have the cheapest piece around! The first step is to bribe your dad to let you build the beast. When you finally convince him, gather up your crew, and go to step 2. Step 2, round up some hammers, a few nails, a saw, and of course some original piece wood. O.k, ya got the hammers, the nails, and the saw, but where's the wood? Wait!!, you don't have any wood! Well don't go to the disaster, the piece master's got the answer! See what you do is you go to all your crews houses, and ya scrownge up any old wood you can find. This worked for me, and it can work for you. When you and your crew scrownge up enough wood that should do, scan step 3, for more piece plans! Step 3, so now (hopefully your ready to build the beast GOOD LUCK!!! So here we go, cut 2 poles the height you want your ramp (I personally suggest 7-8 ft, but do as you wish) Now cut a PIECE of wood to go across the 2 poles. This will be the width of the of the blatant blaster! Piece the three together and go to step 4. Step 4 Stand your structure upright, and stick it in the ground. If it stays O.K., if not tough *@!%?$ Hopefully it stands, but if not, make it stand! Now you have to cut two other beams about 12ft long and nail to the top beam. When you get the 3 nailed stick some supports and stuff under them so they look safe. Now nail some boards across the 3 so they won't move. Somewhere in your piece woodpile you better have 3 sheets of plywood. If not, scrape some off the neighbors old barn (Hopefully they won't notice) Step 6 The first sheet should go at the very bottom. If it doesn't want to move have the crew stand on it. This should fix the stubborn piece. Nail it down while they are on it. After you get the first sheet on do the same thing with the second, except cram some logs and junk under it to make more curve. Step 7 Take a break and admire your piece of art. While you are doing this we suggest you munch on some Doritos and guzzle the Coke. Ok, enough break, yer almost done! By now you should have that beast covered halfway up with 2 sheets of plywood, right? Good now lets move on. Step 8. Plaster on the last piece of plywood. This should have the most curve and about 1 foot of vert. This will be the hardest piece to put on. Step 9 Your done! Isn't is awesome?! An original piece ramp! So, what are you waiting for? Grab your bikes and thrash! Step 10 I do strongly suggest that you paint and graffitize!!

THE BOX

I WAITED SEVERAL DAYS, AND FINALLY IT CAME, THE UPS MAN PULLED UP IN FRONT OF MY HOUSE. I RAN OUT, EAGERLY AWAITING THE BOX, THAT HAD TRAVELED SO FAR TO REACH MY HOUSE. THE UPS MAN OPENED THE BACK DOORS OF THE BROWN VAN, MY HEART PUMPED FASTER, AND MY EYES LIT UP.

HE TOLD ME TO GET SOMEONE OLDER. I RAN IN THE HOUSE AND GOT MY OLDER BRO. HE CAME OUT, AND HELPED HIM LIFT THE BOX. YES! THE BOX. IT HAD HUFFY STAMPED ON THE SIDE OF IT. THEY SET IT DOWN, AND I GOT A KNIFE, AND I OPENED THE BEAST. IT WAS INCREDIBLE, THAT IRON FRAME GLISTENED IN THE SUN. I PULLED IT OUT, AND RUBBED MY HAND DOWN THE FRAME. I REACHED INSIDE THE BOX, AND PULLED OUT THE INSTRUCTIONS. I FOLLOWED THEM CLOSELY. PART B. EGGS ON PART A. I PULLED OUT PART B, THE AWESOME KNOBBY TIRES, AND FASTENED ONE ON THE FORKS. THEN I PUT THE STEM, AND HANDLEBARS ON. I FASTENED THE ONE AND ONLY BOLT, AND PUT THE BARS, WAYYY FORWARD SO THEY'LL LOOK COOL! NEXT CAME THE STRAIGHT SEAT POST, I WANTED A LAYED BACK, SO I BENT IT OVER MY LEG, AND PUT THE SEAT ON, I PUT IT DOWN AS LOW AS IT WOULD GO. I THEN PUT THE BACKTIRE ON, AND TIGHTENED THE CHAIN AS TIGHT AS IT WOULD GO. I PUT A WHOLE CAN OF GREASE ON IT, SO IT COULD GO FASTER. I APLIED THOSE RADICAL HARD PLASTIC GRIPS ON THE BARS. MY FINGERS FIT THE FINGER NOTCHES PERFECT! IT TOOK ME A LONG TIME TO GET THE FRONT BRAKE TO WORK. IN FACT, IT STILL DOESN'T WORK BUT! MY COASTER BRAKE WORKS GREAT. I CAN PULL AWESOME SKIDS. I PUT ON THE REFLECTORS, SO CARS CAN BE SEEN, I MEAN I CAN BE SEEN! FINALLY I PUT ON THE CHECKERED PADS, AND I WAS READY TO RIDE OH NO! I FORGOT THE CHAINGUARD, I DON'T WANT TO GET MY PANT LEG CAUGHT NOW, THE PSECE WAS READY TO RIDE! I PROUDLY THREN MY LEG OVER IT, AND BEGAN TO PEDAL DOWN THE STREET, SHOWING OFF TO ALL THE LITTLE, WHO HAD CHEAP GT'S. I FINALLY DECIDED IT WAS TIME TO HIT THE JUMPS, I MUST OF SKYED A WHOLE FOOT OFF THAT DIRT JUMP! AND THEN I WOKE UP, WHAT A NIGHTMARE. (TWO DAYS LATER, MY NEW AWESOME REDLINE RL-22 CAME!)

SHAWN REED

IE. This is the guy that scraped his old RL-22 down to the chrome with a razor blade. AND, IT WORKED OUT GREAT!

ANARCHIST MONTHLY

I think politicians are a great bunch of lamers! I mean who else could've of got the deficit jacked up so high? It was those dirty rotten freestylers, right? "Of course they always do it!" "Mr President, I think we should divert the blame of the Iran-Contra Scandel to those freestylers down the street " So all of the freestylers were rounded up and thrown into the slammer Now all the prisions are over crowded so that blame got pinned on us to All the cops had to stay and watch us or round up strays, so we were also blamed for the rising murder rate in the U S since there no cops to watch the streets Our lawyers, much against our will, claimed it was the "musical demons and manufacturing big-wigs" that provoked our Anarchic street moves, so our musical and bike making heroes were jailed to Our beloved magazines were diminished to lowly 8-page zines with bad copying (for it ordered nobody with a free-style zines past could'nt posses a copier or be sold art supplies), old pictures, and stories provoking revolt Our parents lost their jobs and were deemed social outcasts Our little Bro's and Sisters were beat up daily on the bus and on playgrounds Things looked bad Very bad What was to happen? Only I know! Or at least I think I do But you'll have to wait 'til next time!

What I think

I think Ron Wilkerson is the best, Todd Anderson is cool, but he talks like a girl, Ski Doo Formula Plus rules, Vision is the best, Rap is no one, Haro is too Rad, 2-Hip is in, Reagan is cool, Space Shuttle is rad, Donald Duck is soooo funny, Dr Demento rules, UTF0 is way cool, Davy D sucks, Predator was an ok movie, I liked the gun, Football is lame, and bowling is boring, so is golf, skiing is pitiful, and Snowboarding, and snowmobiling is way better, Doritos taste horrible, McDonalds & Coke is better than Burger King & Pepsi, Redline is making a comeback, I can't stand imitation parts, Mother Goose and Grimm is the funniest cartoon, Snoopy is cool, Fruity Pebbles rule the cereal world, I used to hate Ceppie but now I like him, Smoking is lame along with drugs, Odyssey gyros are smooth, Haro darts are rad, But trials look dumb, Freestyle rules, The new GT stickers look lame (That's what everybody thinks), My first period class sucks, My man Wes thinks 57 Chevy's rule, but I think I'd rather have a Porche, Vision pants look awesome, I hate nerds and jocks, I think this ought to be continued because I can't think of any more!!

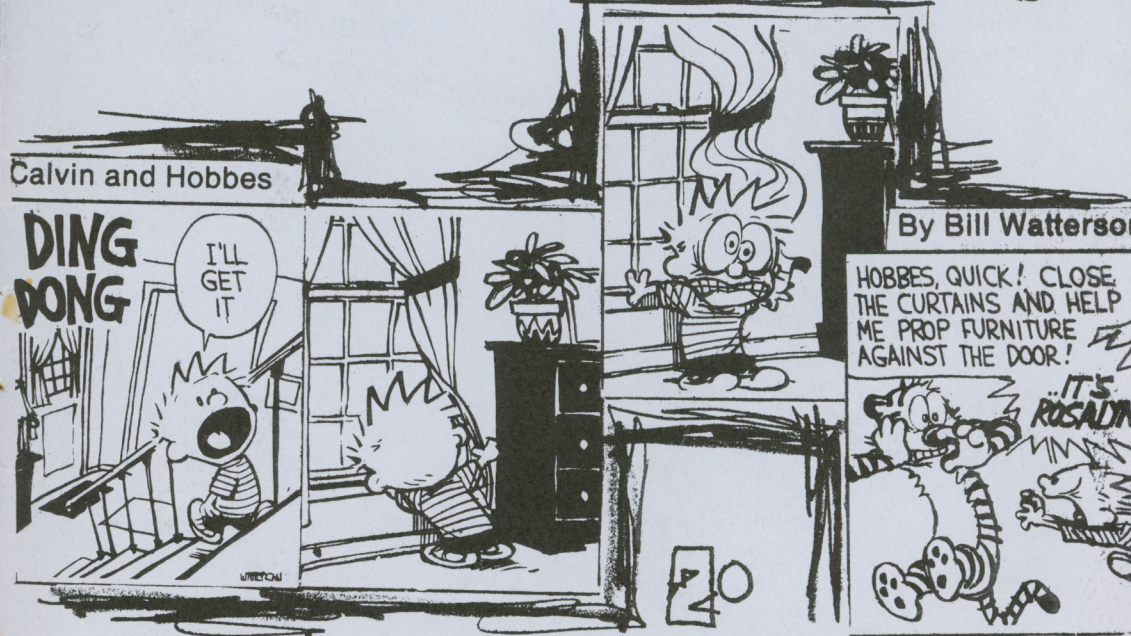

That's what I think, think on your own

Hey who did this?

No Chris's lips arent this Big. thinky

cops hate kids, kids hate cops, cops kill kids, with warvin shots, what is crime and what is not, what is justice, I think I forgot. We need to buy weapons to keep us strong, Reagan send guns, where they don't belong.
The controversy is thick and THIN
the drag is strong, but no matter the lies, we all know who's wrong. Homeless sleep on city streets, waiting to die,
with nothing to eat. White rich politicians soak their feet in the pools at thier 10 million buck retreat. People hate people for color of face, no one had a choice in the race we were placed A brother in Queens was beaten and chased, murdered cold in the street, a Goddamn disgrace.
Just because of his race, his ife went to waste and not one went to jail when the court heard the case. Justice and corruption, it's all in the lace
now can you swallow this,
